

If a young person tells you about abuse, you must always pass this information on

Having favourites can do no harm

When working as a Young Leader, it's okay for you to run a game when an adult Leader is not present

Young Leaders may share sleeping accommodation with adult Leaders when space is limited or alternative arrangements cannot be made

You should not get involved in a relationship with a young person in the Section where you are working

Young Leaders shouldn't have any physical contact with young people

It's acceptable to 'take the mickey' out of a young person

Young people always report incidents of abuse

Young people are likely to exaggerate incidents of abuse

It's better to wait and see what happens before reporting behaviour or attitudes you do not like
